Spring Term - Issue 83 - 12th January 2024 The Dogs Trust Visit to the Infants

The Infant site had a very special visit this week from Phil and Larry from the Dog's Trust. Larry is a toy dog, and he came with his owner Phil to tell us all how to respect and treat a dog. We learnt 5 key rules.

Rule 1 - If a dog is sleeping, you should leave them alone.

Rule 2 - If a dog is eating, you should leave them alone.

Rule 3 - We should always be quiet around dogs.

Rule 4 - Dogs do not like hugs, they prefer gentle strokes.

Rule 5 - If a dog has one of your toys, tell an adult.

"If we see a dog on their walk, you should ask the owner's permission if you can pet the dog. Then you stand still so the dog can smell you. If he runs away he doesn't want you to say hello. If he stays, you can stroke his back". - Tarkan

"I had to put the blanket down for Larry so he could have a nap". - Leah

"I had to feed and pet the dog". - Roman

We had a wonderful morning and learnt lots of useful information. A big thank you to Phil from The Dogs Trust for visiting us.
