Autumn Term - Issue 105 - 13th September

Welcome Back

It's been a busy first full week back but it has been lovely to get back into our regular routines.

Our Year 6's have an important week coming up. Tomorrow they will be sitting their Kent Test and next week their Medway Test. We wish the children the very best - we are so proud of the hard work and preparation they have all put in. Believe in yourselves.

Mrs Gee , Headteacher

Online Safety

The free online guide this week focuses on how to help children and young people avoid disputes arising between one another, and how to resolve them in an effective way when they do occur.

#WakeupWednesday guides, from National Online Safety, are full of helpful information and expert tips and advice to keep your child safe online and to avoid potential risks.

We celebrated Roald Dahl day in assembly this morning.

We had an Oompa Loompa come to visit (who looked a little like Mrs Foot!) and Leah in Year 3 told us about the Charlie and the Chocolate Factory production that she took part in during the summer.

Magdalena and Mireya (year 4) individually sang a song from the same musical, both were incredible, especially as they sang a cappella. Well done !

Extra Curricular News

Meera from Year 4 completed the Summer Reading Challenge by reading six books from the library and being tested on them.

Meera really enjoyed it and loved the books she read.

Well done Meera.

Maggie from Year 4 has been cast as Charlie in a 60th Anniversary performance of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

She has worked so hard on her auditions and it's paid off securing the lead!

She will be performing at The Granville Theatre in Ramsgate between 27 Nov and 30 Nov.

This is fantastic news Maggie, well done!

Night Walk for One Big Family Charity

Mrs Notley is part of a team walking 55km overnight on 5th October from London to Chatham to raise money for the One Big Family - the homeless charity covering Medway.

No pressure at all but if you would like to sponsor Mrs Notley, donations can be made directly to the charity via this link:

For more information on the important work carried out by the charity please visit: <https://www.helpingthehomeless.org.uk/medway>

Thank you.

Congratulations and best wishes to:-

Madison, Olivia-Grace, Harland & Jovan
